Presentation by Dr. Mona Hanna-Attisha
Tuesday, October 1
7:30-9:15 PM
Lenhart Grand Ballroom, 202 BTSU

Presentation includes Q&A and book signing. This event is free and open to students, faculty, and community members. Please register now and ask your students to do the same: bgsu.edu/commonread

Note: Student attendance will be taken via swipers. If you would like the attendance list following the presentation, contact Donna Nelson-Beene (dnelson@bgsu.edu).

BGSU Common Reading LibGuide  https://libguides.bgsu.edu/eyes
Please be sure to check out this site for great information, videos, and assignment ideas related to the common reading, the author, Flint, and more.

BGSU Common Reading Supporting Events

Mon. Sept. 23: Common Reading Film & Programming: Poisoned Water
(7:30-9:15 PM in the BGSU Film Theater, BTSU). Open to 250 students, faculty, and staff. The film will be followed with a short discussion/presentation conducted by local environmental policy activist, Lisa Kochheiser. For (free) tickets for you or your students, contact Donna Nelson-Beene (dnelson@bgsu.edu).

Sponsored by the Department of English and the Common Reading Program
Tues. Sept. 24: Dr. James Schirmer, Chair of the English Dept. at UM—Flint (and BGSU alum) will conduct workshop(s) for faculty on meaningful assignment making regarding the Flint water crisis:

• 11:30 AM-12:45 PM “Reading and Writing Amidst Crisis” (Session for English Department)
• 4:00-5:00 PM: "Seeking Our Own Level" (Session for faculty and staff from all disciplines.) Please RSVP for this session by contacting Donna Nelson-Beene (dnelson@bgsu.edu).
Mon., Sept. 30: BGSU Faculty Panel with Dr. Hanna-Attisha (3:00-4:30 PM, 207 BTSU). The faculty panel will bring together Mona Hanna-Attisha, Holly Myers (panel chair), George Bullerjahn, Karen Johnson-Webb, and Jordan Wilfong to discuss issues highlighted in the book. Open to all. Faculty and graduate students especially encouraged to attend.

Tues., Oct. 1: Podcast with Jolie Sheffer (1:15-2:20 PM, Stanton Audio Studio, Kuhlin Center) Dr. Hanna-Attisha will be interviewed by Jolie Sheffer for a BG Ideas Podcast. BG Ideas is a podcast produced by the Institute for the Study of Culture and Society and the School of Media and Communication. Karen Johnson-Webb also will contribute to the discussion. Students from the Social Justice Learning Community will observe and raise questions at the end. This is a closed event—but be sure to watch for the resulting BG Ideas podcast which will be available in the spring.

Sponsored by the Office of Campus Sustainability and the Department of Environment and Sustainability:
Throughout October: Bowling Green Water Treatment Plant Tours
As part of Sustainability Month, you and your students are invited to see firsthand how a water treatment plant should operate. Tour dates and times follow:

- Thursday, Oct. 3, 10:00am-noon
- Monday, Oct. 7, 10:00am-noon
- Thursday, Oct. 10, 1:00-3:00pm
- Tuesday, Oct. 15, 11:00am-1:00pm
- Friday, Oct. 25, 1:00pm-3:00pm

Sponsored by BGSU Journalism, School of Media and Communication:
Thurs. Oct. 17: Journalism Matters: The Flint Water Crisis. Panel discussion by journalists who have covered the Flint water crisis. 5:30-7:00 PM. BTSU Film Theater (Room 206). Open to all.

Sponsored by BGSU Biology and BGSU Forensics:
Thurs. Oct. 24: Hands-On Water Testing Dr. Tim Davis and Dr. Travis Worst will guide groups of STEM students through hands-on water testing:
- Noon-1:00 PM
- 1:15-2:15 PM
- 2:30-3:30 PM

Come learn for yourself what’s in your drinking water! Please contact Donna Nelson-Beene if you and/or your students would like to participate in one of these sessions.

Please be sure to mark your calendars today for Dr. Hanna-Attisha’s presentation—and for the other events of your choice! Contact Donna Nelson-Beene if you have questions (dnelson@bgsu.edu).